Main Street Monday!

The results are in! After many weeks of review combined with site visits throughout the year we are pleased to certify the following communities as part of the National and Kentucky Main Street programs.

Accredited communities have met all of the 10 Performance Standards set forth by the National Main Street Center, Affiliate communities have met at least 5 of 10. Network communities are those that are in the beginning phases of the program or are in some form of transition.

A special congratulations to Danville & Shelbyville who met all ten Standards at a level 10 gaining them perfect scores!

In case you haven't heard, KHC's KY Main Street Program Administrator Kitty Dougoud has taken on the duties and title of Site Development Program Manager, stepping in for Scot Walters, who retired earlier this year. In addition to KYMS, Kitty will now also oversee staff who provide design assistance and work with historic rehab tax credits (Staff Architect Jen Spangler Williamson, AIA, and Restoration Project Manager Mike Radeke) and work with Certified Local Governments (Vicki Birenberg, CLG Program and planning coordinator). Please join us in thanking her for her commitment and hard work. L-R: Mike, Kitty, Vicki, Jen

HISTORYMOBILE

Bring fun - and education - to your summer activities!

Book the KHS HISTORYMOBILE for a visit and meet eight Kentuckians who had tough choices to make during the Civil War era. Learn what they did - and why - and ask yourself what you would have done in their shoes.

The full-sized semitrailer contains the interactive exhibit -

"TORN BETWEEN AND THUNDERED ALIBOOT"
KENTUCKIANS IN THE CIVIL WAR ERA

It uses touch-screen activities, bold illustrations, authentic artifacts, personal recollections and other components to bring the stories of everyday citizens, politicians and enslaved people to life.

More information is at kentucky.gov/partofwhat-would-you-choose.

Downtown Henderson Farm & Art Market coming

By Gleaner Staff

The Henderson Farmers Market will be expanding its services, offering a one night a week Farm & Art Market in the Downtown area.

According to city officials, the Downtown Henderson Farm & Art Market will be from 4-8 p.m. on Wednesdays at Audubon Mill Park, located on the riverfront.

The Farm & Art Market will kick off May 25 and end Sept. 28. The only Wednesday this summer it won't be in operation will be on June 15, which is during the W.C. Handy Blues and Barbecue Festival.

"Groups that have collaborated on the new sales opportunity for local growers and artists include Downtown Henderson Partnership, Henderson Farmers Market Association, city of Henderson, Henderson County Tourist Commission, Henderson County Parks and Programs and local artists," according to a news release from the city of Henderson.

Storytelling is a powerful way to broadly engage a community and hear from voices that often go unheard. Hear how storytelling has brought residents together, bridged divides, and helped community foundations have a positive and meaningful impact. This free, 60-minute conversation focuses on storytelling using the Community Heart & Soul™ method of community development. Hosted by Fran Stoddard of the Orton Family Foundation. Co-sponsored by the Council on Foundations.

Featured speakers are:

Katherine Kreuchauf, president, Findlay-Hancock County Community Foundation in Ohio.

Nancy Van Milligen, president and chief executive, Community Foundation of Greater Dubuque in Iowa.

Jason Neises, Heart & Soul coordinator, Community Foundation of Greater Dubuque

Monica Palmquist, community organizer who served on her town's Heart & Soul Team in Cortez, Colorado.

Bunnies were center stage this past week-end in many Main Street communities! In the past our former director Samantha Brady wore the costume in Bardstown, I'm not sure if Lisanne is in there or not. Dedicated board chair James David Sensabaugh took on the role in London!

Happy Birthday to Jacob Roan, Pineville director, on Saturday, March 26th!

I hope each of you have a wonderful Easter filled with the delights of family, friends, and of course, Chocolate!
